

Ticket to Wellbeing program

This factsheet provides point in time information about the 2026-27 Ticket to Wellbeing program. For the latest program information please visit www.tickettowellbeing.tas.gov.au

Please note: Vouchers are limited, and the program will close when all available vouchers have been issued for this round. Vouchers must be used with an approved provider by 4 June 2027.

How do I apply?

You can apply online at www.tickettowellbeing.tas.gov.au. You will need a valid email address and a copy of your Services Australia Health Care or Pensioner Concession Card.

You can also apply by completing this application form and visiting a Service Tasmania centre.

What can I use my voucher for?

Vouchers can be used for membership fees at sporting clubs, aquatic centres, gyms, tai chi, yoga and other active recreation activities that have registered for the program.

How do I find an activity?

A list of current places to participate is available at the Ticket to Wellbeing website which is regularly updated as more organisations join the program. A snapshot of registered sports and multisport/gyms is provided below.

How do I apply if I don't have internet access or an email address?

You can apply in person with a completed application form at one of the 27 Service Tasmania centres around the State. Call 1300 13 55 13 to find your nearest location.

A friend, family member, chosen club/organisation or local community centre can also help you to apply online via the website. You can access the internet for free at your local library and even book a time for a library volunteer to help you with your application.

You can set up a free email account through providers including Gmail, Yahoo Mail or Mail.com.

Can I use my voucher more than once of the cost is less than $100?

No. Vouchers are single use only. Any remaining amount is not redeemable for cash and cannot be used towards membership at another activity provider.

Where can I go for support?

If you need help, please email tickettowellbeing@active.tas.gov.au or call Service Tasmania on 1300 13 55 13 - the phone lines open 9.00 am – 5.00 pm weekdays.
